Applicants for federal financial aid must meet criteria established by the U.S. Department of Education before aid eligibility can be determined.

Upon review of the results from your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), it has been determined that you do not meet one or more of the following requirements:

Citizenship or Eligible Non-Citizen Status

You must provide documentation to confirm that you are a United States citizen or eligible non-citizen.

Acceptable documentation includes:

- (a) Copy of your birth certificate
- (b) Your original Certificate of Citizenship or Naturalization
- (c) Documentation to establish lawful permanent resident status in the United States
- (d) Alien Registration Receipt Card (Form 1-151 or Form 1-551, also known as a “green card”)
- (e) Documentation to establish application for Permanent Residence
- (f) Documentation to establish Lawful Presence in the United States for purposes other than temporary

Selective Service Registration

You must provide a letter from Selective Service acknowledging registration or exemption. Please call Selective Service at (847) 688-6888 for assistance in obtaining the letter.

Default

Federal database records indicate that you have defaulted on a federal student loan. To be eligible for additional aid, you must provide current proof from your loan agency showing you have either paid the loan in full or have made satisfactory repayment arrangements and that your loan is no longer in default. Contact the following agency:

Social Security Number

You must provide either a copy of your Social Security Card or other documentation provided on official Social Security Administration letterhead showing your current name and Social Security Number. If recently married or divorced please submit your marriage license or divorce/dissolution decree. Please contact the Social Security Administration to update their database.

Veteran Status

You must provide a copy of your DD-214.

Other _____

Your prompt attention to this letter will be appreciated as your financial aid cannot be processed until this is resolved. If you have any questions, please contact Jennie Carlson, Financial Aid Administrator, at jcarlson@aultman.com.
