- Title IX (Sabino & Loretto)

Title IX Compliance—

Everyone plays a role!

- ODHE survey results
- Education and awareness training opportunities
- Spot the IX Campaign

Climate Survey Results

- Majority of students, faculty/staff feel safe on campus
- Majority (faculty 90th %; students 70th %) aware of policy/procedure
- Majority said they had not received prevention and response training, even though offerings were widely publicized
 - Online module requirement (annual)
 - Husch Blackwell legal session (August)
 - 2016: two sessions each w/Domestic Violence Project, CommQuest (Alcohol/Drug), Compass (Bystander), Women's Personal Protection (self-defense); one SANE presentation (Kalt)

Climate Survey Results

- ▶ Challenge—ODHE assumes we are non-compliant with training recommendations based on survey results
- ▶ We will continue to schedule and advertise training sessions
- ▶ How can you get involved?
- ▶ What are your recommendations for increased involvement?

“Spot the IX” Campaign

- Raise campus awareness
- Look for schedule of training events, including on CTL day
 - Bystander Intervention, local agency presentations, Chalk the Walk, social media posts, etc.)
- What topics interest you? Use form provided to recommend.
- How can you be involved?

“Spot the IX” Campaign

the girl who sits next to me in class told me her boyfriend is stalking her.

I eXplained we have somewhere to go for help.

Under Title IX, students are protected from sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual violence.

Help is available if you experience or become aware of a Title IX issue.

If you Spot the IX contact a resource person:

- Lyn Sabino, Title IX Officer, 330.363.4227 (office), 330.705.2819 (cell), Lyn.Sabino@aultman.com, or stop in the college main office to meet with her
